

At a glance:

Hospital Homebound in Texas

Is my child eligible?

Children with chronic illnesses can receive hospital- or home-based instruction through the Hospital Homebound (HHB) program.

To receive HHB educational accommodations, your child must:

- » Be absent from school for a medically diagnosed illness or disability for at least four continuous weeks.
- » Have doctor certification that medical, mental, or emotional conditions prevent school attendance.

How much instruction will my child receive?

Hours of instruction vary depending on your child's needs

How long can my child receive HHB services?

Schools provide HHB services as long as medically necessary.

Resources

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION—
Ensures that students succeed in their education and receive quality instruction.

512.463.9734
teainfo@tea.texas.gov
www.tea.state.tx.us

What is the HHB application process?

First, submit the request for HHB services to your child's home school district with doctor certification.

Then, work with your child and their school to develop and implement an instructional plan.

Visit www.projectpencil.com to learn more about legal protections for children with chronic illness under HHB. The Project PENCIL materials provide general information, which is not intended to constitute legal advice or substitute for obtaining legal advice from your own counsel. Laws vary by state and are subject to change. If you need answers to specific legal questions, please seek professional legal assistance.