

At a glance:

IDEA in Texas

Is my child eligible?

Children with chronic illnesses can receive educational accommodations under the IDEA Other Health Impairments (OHI) category.

To receive educational accommodations under IDEA OHI, your child must:

- » Have physical or mental limitations due to the chronic illness.
- » Experience negative impacts on educational performance due to the chronic illness.

How long does the eligibility evaluation take?

Schools have 45 school days to complete your child's evaluation to determine eligibility.

Where does my child receive educational accommodations?

Your child will most likely receive educational accommodations in the regular classroom.

When will my child get an Individualized Education Plan (IEP)?

The IEP team must have a meeting and develop an IEP within 30 calendar days of determining your child is eligible for educational accommodations under IDEA.

Where can I get help?

DISABILITY RIGHTS TEXAS—Improves educational opportunities for students with disabilities by helping them receive the assistive technology and training required for their success in school.

512.454.4816

800.252.9108

info@drtx.org

www.disabilityrightstx.org

Can I participate in my child's IEP team?

Yes, parents are equal members of the IEP team and have a say in the development and implementation of the child's IEP.

CHILDREN'S DISABILITIES INFORMATION COALITION—Promotes partnerships between parents, professionals, and various agencies to find solutions to problems within the community that affect children with disabilities.

915.217.2747

info@cdicelpaso.org

www.cdicelpaso.org

Visit www.projectpencil.com to learn more about legal protections for children with chronic illness under IDEA. The Project PENCIL materials provide general information, which is not intended to constitute legal advice or substitute for obtaining legal advice from your own counsel. Laws vary by state and are subject to change. If you need answers to specific legal questions, please seek professional legal assistance.