

At a glance:

IDEA in Alaska

Is my child eligible?

Children with chronic illnesses can receive educational accommodations under the IDEA Other Health Impairments (OHI) category.

To receive educational accommodations under IDEA OHI, your child must:

- » Have a diagnosis from a physician.
- » Have physical or mental limitations due to the chronic illness.
- » Experience negative impacts on educational performance due to the chronic illness.
- » Need special facilities, equipment, or methods to receive educational instruction.
- » Have an evaluation by an evaluation team to determine need for special education services.

How long does the eligibility evaluation take?

Schools have 90 calendar days to complete your child's evaluation to determine eligibility.

Where does my child receive educational accommodations?

Your child will most likely receive educational accommodations in the regular classroom.

When will my child get an Individualized Education Plan (IEP)?

The IEP team must have a meeting and develop an IEP within 90 days of determining your child is eligible for educational accommodations under IDEA.

Where can I get help?

STONE SOUP GROUP—Provides information, support, training, and resources to assist families caring for children with special needs, including children with chronic illnesses.

907.561.3701

877.786.7327

info@stonesoupgroup.org

www.stonesoupgroup.org

Can I participate in my child's IEP team?

Yes, parents are equal members of the IEP team and have a say in the development and implementation of the child's IEP.

THE DISABILITY LAW CENTER—Provides protection and advocacy services to Alaskans with disabilities, including children with chronic illnesses.

907.565.1002

800.478.1234

akpa@dlcak.org

www.dlcak.org

Visit www.projectpencil.com to learn more about legal protections for children with chronic illness under IDEA. The Project PENCIL materials provide general information, which is not intended to constitute legal advice or substitute for obtaining legal advice from your own counsel. Laws vary by state and are subject to change. If you need answers to specific legal questions, please seek professional legal assistance.